Question 1.

Write a short review of ‘Cinderella’

Answer:

Cinderella: Cinderella was a beautiful, kind girl who had lost her mother at a very young age. Her father had married again and Cinderella's step-mother had two daughters. Cinderella's step mother and her step sisters were very cruel to her. She was made to do all the house-work. She was happy doing it. Most of the time, she was covered with cinder (ashes) and that is why she came to be called Cinderella. Once the prince of the kingdom threw a ball (party).

All the young girls were invited. The prince had decided to choose his bride from among them. Cinderella's step sisters were dressed for the occasion. Cinderella also longed to go for the party. After her step-mother and step-sisters had left for the party, Cinderella sat crying. Suddenly a fairy appeared and asked her why she was sad. When she told the fairy the reason, the fairy decided to help her. She moved her magic wand and Cinderella was transformed into a beautiful looking lady.

Using her magic wand, she changed a pumpkin into a golden carriage, two mice into horses, a rat into a coachman and two wizards into footmen. The fairy warned Cinderella that she could go to the palace and enjoy the party but should return home before the clock struck twelve. The fairy told her that as the clock strikes twelve, the magic would go off and everything would change back to what they were. Cinderella attended the party and was the most beautiful girl out there.

The prince danced only with her throughout. The step-sisters were very jealous. They could not recognize Cinderella. Cinderella remembered what the fairy had said and left the hall before twelve. She promised the prince that she would be at the party the next day too. When the step sisters returned home all they could talk was about the beautiful lady at the party. The next evening Cinderella was present at the party looking as lovely as ever.
