

Science Practice Assignment-3

Class-V

I. Fill in the blanks:-

1. _____ is made up of very tiny particles called molecules.
2. Breaking away of rocks by wind,rain and snow is called _____.

II. Name the following :

1. A substance that dissolves in a liquid.
2. A rock that is used to make blackboards.

III. Give two examples of:

1. Metamorphic rocks
2. Chemical change

III. Write any one use of:-

1. Gas in liquid solution
2. Conglomerate

IV. Define the following terms:-

1. Miscible solution
2. Sediment

V. Give reasons:-

1. Solids have a fixed shape and size .
2. There is no increase in the volume of solution when sugar is added.

VII. Answer the following:-

1. How are intrusive igneous rocks different from extrusive igneous rocks?(any two points)
2. What is a physical change? Give two examples of it.
3. What is a saturated solution? Name the different types of solution.