Answer:

<https://www.indcareer.com/schools/maharashtra-board-solutions-for-class-6-english-voyage-3-chapter-3-6-the-merchant-of-venice/>

Portia was a beautiful and intelligent woman. She was the only daughter of a very wealthy man. Her father had died leaving her a large estate. Her father had written a will on how Portia's husband had to be selected. Portia happily married Bassanio in accordance with her father's will.

Question 4.

Shylock:

Answer:

Shylock was a Jewish moneylender. He had a lot of money. He was not a generous person. Money was all that he cared for. He did not like Antonio and wanted to harm him. He got a chance to do so when Antonio went to him to borrow money for Bassanio. He readily gave the money but with a strange condition which was very cruel and inhuman.

3. Write the following in short:

Question 1.

The story of the three caskets

Answer:

Portia's father, a very wealthy man died leaving her a large estate. Her father had prepared a will in which he had written how her husband should be selected. He had to choose between three caskets – one of gold, one of silver and . one of lead. Each had something written on it and a message inside the box. The one who took the right casket which was the lead casket won Portia's hand in marriage.

Question 2.

What the young lawyer pleaded?

Answer:

Antonio was taken to court by Shylock to demand and fulfill his strange and cruel condition. If the condition was fulfilled, Antonio would lose his life. A lawyer entered the court to fight Antonio's case. The lawyer requested Shylock to show mercy though the law was on his side.

The lawyer pleaded that mercy is a quality of God. He further said that when a person shows mercy to someone, both are blessed. He said that mercy was more valuable than a king's
