

Class : V
Sub : Science

L – The Environment : Pollution

I. Complete the following-

1. Farmers use chemicals to _____.
2. Air pollution increases the level _____.
3. Pollution is a big _____.
4. We, the human beings are the only living things who
_____.
5. Efforts to control pollution of air _____.

II. Give two examples of each of the following:-

1. Natural sources of energy

2. Diseases caused by noise

3. Diseases caused by drinking polluted water

4. Diseased caused by air pollution

5. Non-living things that are a part of the environment

6. Sources of air pollution

Class : V
Sub : Science

L – The Environment : Pollution

Answer the following questions-

1. What is pollution? What are the different kinds of pollution?

Ans. _____

2. Which human activities are damaging the environment?

Ans. _____

3. What are the main causes of water pollution?

Ans. _____

4. What is acid rain?

Ans. _____

5. How can we reduce air pollution?

Ans. _____

6. What are natural resources? give some examples.

Ans. _____

7. What is environment?

Ans. _____

8. What is global warming?

Ans. _____

9. Which layer protects us from sun's ultraviolet rays?

Ans. _____

10. How do ultraviolet rays harm us?

Ans. _____