Think about It

1. Noodle avoids offending Think – Tank but at the same time he corrects his mistakes. How does he manage to do that?

Answer

Noodle avoided offending Think-Tank, but at the same time he corrected his mistakes. Whenever he had to say something contrary to what Think-Tank said, he would present his thoughts by referring to them as being of no particular importance. In this way he would correct Think-Tank's errors without making him feel that he was being corrected.

2. If you were in Noodle's place, how would you handle Think –Tank's mistakes?

Answer

If I were in Noodle's place, I would have handled Think-Tank's mistakes the same way as Noodle does.

3. Do you think books are being replaced by the electronic media?
Can we do away with books altogether?

Answer

No, books can never replace the electronic media. Though, electronic media is very popular and we tend to watch videos more often than reading books but still the knowledge we get from reading books is far better. If you want to learn something and gain new knowledge, you will always want to have a book in your hand.

4. Why are books referred to as a man's best companion? Which is your favourite book and why? Write a paragraph about that book.

Answer

Books are known to be as man's best companion. Human can make mentally and friendly relation with them. They can use them for knowledge as well as time pass purpose.

Choose your favourite book and wrote one para about that.
