Answer

Disclaimer: This is a sample answer. Students are advised to write the answer based on their own experiences and observations.

One morning, I found my pet dog missing at home. I was worried about where he could be. He slept with me in my bed the last night. He was not well so I took him to vet the day before he was missing. I spent the whole day to find him. It was only in the evening that the vet called me up and informed me that he was sitting near his hospital. I rushed towards the hospital and was extremely glad to see him after these long hours.
