Answer the following Questions.

Question 1:

What are some of the signs of approaching winter referred to in the text?

Answer:

The signs of the approaching winter are the movement of birds to warm south, the woollens needed by people and the dead leaves covering the ground.

Question 2:

Write 'True' or 'False' against each of the following:

(i) Soapy did not want to go to prison.

(ii) Soapy had been to prison several times.

(iii) It was not possible for Soapy to survive in the city through the winter.

(iv) Soapy hated to answer questions of a personal nature.

Answer:

(i) False (ii) True (iii) True (iv) True

Question 3:

What was Soapy's first plan? Why did it not work?

Answer:

He would go to eat at restaurant and would then tell them he had no money. They would immediately call a cop who would arrest him. But as soon as he put his foot inside the restaurant, the waiters blocked his entry. Thus his first plan did not work.

Answer:

The sight of the home where Soapy had spent his childhood suddenly changed his outlook. The old memories of his mother and the sweet music revived his love for a decent life. He decided to work and become somebody in life.

Discuss the following topics in groups.

Question 1:

Suppose no cop came at the end. What would Soapy's life be like through the winter?

Answer:

In case Soapy was not arrested and sent to prison he would have started a new life. He might have taken up some job and lived like a normal gentleman. But through the winter he might have faced the icy winds.

Question 2:

Retell an episode in the story which is a good example of irony in a situation.

Answer:

Soapy was keen to be sent to prison for the three cold months. He made several attempts to get arrested. But none of his plans worked. Finally, when he decided to live a decent life honestly, he was arrested. Such an episode is ironical.
