4. Explain the following statements with reasons.

Question 1.

'The Treaty of Versailles' had the seeds of the Second World War. The Text does not have any comment to this effect.

Answer:

- The Treaty of Versailles was signed between the Allied nations and Germany at Versailles palace in 1919. It was drafted by American President Woodrow Wilson.
- The Treaty of Versailles was very harsh on Germany because Germany had lost the war.
- Germany was forced to accept the responsibility for the war damages suffered by the Allies.
- The victorious powers had deprived Germany of huge tracts of its territory. Germany was burdened with an immense war indemnity.
- The peace settlement at Paris was made in a spirit of revenge. The Germans felt that too much injustice had been done to them.
- The German economy was ruined completely. People were starving and the government was in chaos.
- It was impossible for a proud German race to forget the consequences of the war, which they had lost so humiliatingly.
- This fuelled the rise of Nazism in Germany which adopted the policy of aggression.
- In this way, the Treaty of Versailles sowed the seeds of the Second World War.

Question 2.

The British Government in India decided to return home.

Answer:

- The Second World War ended in the month of August 1945 with the surrender of Japan.
- In this war, England emerged victoriously but it lost heavily in terms of human life and economic conditions.
- As a result of this England grew weaker. The British Government in India is now aware that Indian soldiers and people are not as meek and submissive as before, ruling them was no easier.
- India was not going to be the perennial source of profit for them as it used to be. There was a lot of pressure on England to give freedom to its colonies. Freedom struggles began in India which demanded 'Poorna Swarajya' which means total independence. Hence, the British Government in India decided to return home.

5. Answer the following questions in detail.Question 1.

Give the causes of the Second World War.

- (i) Dissatisfaction with the Treaty of Versailles
- (ii) Rise of Hitler
- (iii) Rise of Communism
- (iv) Hitler's attack on Poland
- (v) Hitler's violation of the Non-aggression Pact

Answer:

The Second World War was fought between 1939 to 1945. Following were the causes of the Second World War:

<https://www.indcareer.com/schools/maharashtra-board-solutions-class-12-history-chapter-8-world-wars-and-india/>

(i) Dissatisfaction with the Treaty of Versailles: The Treaty of Versailles was very harsh on Germany. It was made in a spirit of revenge. Germany was burdened with huge war indemnity. The German economy was ruined completely. This fuelled the rise of Nazism in Germany.

(ii) Rise of Hitler: The Nazis under the leadership of Hitler grabbed power in Germany. Hitler began to escalate Germany's military power so as to avenge the demeaning conditions imposed on Germany by the treaty of Versailles. He focussed on increasing the strength of the military as well as the navy.

(iii) Rise of Communism: Meanwhile, Soviet Russia, a communist nation was becoming more powerful. It made nations like England, France, America uneasy. Soviet Russia and imperialistic Germany viewed each other as arch enemies. England and France ignored the advances of Germany thinking that it will keep a check on the rising power of Soviet Russia.

(iv) Hitler's attack on Poland: In 1938, Hitler won the Sudeten province in Czechoslovakia, which was populated in majority by people of German origin. In 1939, he attacked Poland which was looked upon as a neutral country by all European nations. In spite of this, Hitler attacked Poland. Therefore, England declared war against Germany.

(v) Hitler's violation of the Non-aggression pact: Denmark, Norway surrendered to Germany. Germany conquered Holland, Belgium, and France. In 1939, Hitler violated the 'Non-aggression Pact' made with Stalin and attacked Soviet Russia so Stalin declared war against Germany.

Question 2.

Why did Indian people participate in the national movement in great numbers?

Answer:

- India was a colony of the British during wartime. England started exploiting their colonies to meet the needs of war.
- During wartime, England felt an increasing need for manpower and money. Therefore, the British Government began recruiting army personnel from India.
- At times the recruitment was enforced on Indians.

<https://www.indcareer.com/schools/maharashtra-board-solutions-class-12-history-chapter-8-world-wars-and-india/>

- Extra taxes were levied on Indians for raising funds. Taxes on trade and industries were raised.
- During the war period prices of essential commodities went up. Indians suffered from the problems of inflation, hike in prices, increasing unemployment caused by the industrial recession.
- Indians could see that the exploitative rule of the British was responsible for this miserable state of affairs.
- Hence, Indians from all strata of society, workers, farmers, and the middle class joined in large numbers in the national movements against British rule.
